At the beginning of the conference, Brigadier Salem Saqr Al Muraikhi noted Qatar's continuous efforts to provide better services to citizens and residents.

"The officials in the country always wanted to provide better services for those living on this land," he stressed. "The importance of the Permanent Residency (PR) Card lies in its appreciation and recognition of some categories of long-term residents whereas it is an extension to fundamental constitutional concepts as it appears clearly in the speeches of HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani when the citizens are paired with the residents," he further added.

He also noted that this initiative will increase the investment and attract more capital leading to the economic growth in the country while the State can benefit from the persons of special competencies as well.

The aim was also to find mechanisms to provide a better service to the resident who is competent and giving. As well, there are categories that are of interest to the state, such as the Qatari children, he said. "As a result this law was developed and various authorities in the country discussed it before it was issued finally couple of days back. It will be implemented once it is published in the Official Gazette," he explained.

He said that the idea of Permanent Residency Card has been underway for some time, and was not the result of any specific event.

He said decisions will be issued soon on the implementation of the law such as the PR card fees, validity and the procedures to be made for withdrawal in the event that a card holder violates the conditions stipulated by the law.

Al Muraikhi added the 100 Permanent Residency grants given per year shall include all the categories and conditions stipulated by they law. This number complies with the size of the Qatari society, however the law allows an increase in number if approved by HH the Amir, based on a recommendation from HE the Prime Minister and Minister of Interior.
